If the EHR does not already flag the first MMR as invalid, the provider updates the first MMR to indicate it is "invalid" as it was given too early (as notified by the registry) Comments If the EMR already recognizes the dose as invalid, then this step may be skipped. Pre Condition Initial Data Load - Step 2: Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice Post Condition MMR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. Test Objectives dose validity is an important aspect of: View Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization cata	t was given too early (as notified by the registry) Ilready recognizes the dose as invalid, then this step may be skipped. Illeady recognizes the dose as invalid, then this step may be skipped. Illeady recognizes the dose as invalid, then this step may be skipped. In the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In the first munication for precast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconclination of immunization data public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to use an external forecasting service. In the vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was lay, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	the EHR does not already flag the first MMR as invalid, the provider updates the first MMR to indicate it is valid" as it was given too early (as notified by the registry) mments the EMR already recognizes the dose as invalid, then this step may be skipped. Condition tial Data Load - p 2: Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice St Condition WR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. St Objectives se validity is an important aspect of: We Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization reast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data tained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. aluation Criteria thation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was ten too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	The EHR does not already flag the first MMR as invalid, the provider updates the first MMR to indicate it is invalid" as it was given too early (as notified by the registry) Onments The EMR already recognizes the dose as invalid, then this step may be skipped. The EMR already recognizes the dose as invalid, then this step may be skipped. The EMR already recognizes the dose as invalid, then this step may be skipped. The EMR already recognizes the dose as invalid, then this step may be skipped. The EMR already recognizes the dose as invalid, then this step may be skipped. The EMR already recognizes the dose as invalid, then this step may be skipped. The EMR already recognizes the dose is set to invalid. The EMR already from practice The EMR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization recast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data untained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to be EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. The Vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was even too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose
Comments If the EMR already recognizes the dose as invalid, then this step may be skipped. Pre Condition Initial Data Load - Step 2: Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice Post Condition MMR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. Test Objectives dose validity is an important aspect of: View Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization contained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal the EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Evaluation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was given too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	t was given too early (as notified by the registry) Ilready recognizes the dose as invalid, then this step may be skipped. Illeady recognizes the dose as invalid, then this step may be skipped. Illeady recognizes the dose as invalid, then this step may be skipped. In the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In the first manufaction for the invalidation of immunization patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to use an external forecasting service. In the vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was lay, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	walid" as it was given too early (as notified by the registry) mments the EMR already recognizes the dose as invalid, then this step may be skipped. Condition tial Data Load - p 2: Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice St Condition MR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. St Objectives se validity is an important aspect of: we Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization reast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data tained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. aluation Criteria thation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was ten too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	Invalid" as it was given too early (as notified by the registry) Omments The EMR already recognizes the dose as invalid, then this step may be skipped. The Condition Initial Data Load - The Ep 2: Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice The Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice The Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice The Enter Initial Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization recast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization recast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data untained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to a EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. The EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. The EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. The EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. The EHR or it can use an external forecast that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was twen too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	Description
Comments If the EMR already recognizes the dose as invalid, then this step may be skipped. Pre Condition Initial Data Load - Step 2: Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice Post Condition MMR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. Fest Objectives dose validity is an important aspect of: View Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization conceast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization the EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Evaluation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it wagiven too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	Iready recognizes the dose as invalid, then this step may be skipped. Load - itial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. Es is an important aspect of: If Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to nuse an external forecasting service. Fiteria a: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was lay, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	he EMR already recognizes the dose as invalid, then this step may be skipped. c Condition tial Data Load - p 2: Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice ct Condition MR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. ct Objectives se validity is an important aspect of: w Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization recast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data tained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. caluation Criteria The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was ten too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	omments The EMR already recognizes the dose as invalid, then this step may be skipped. The Condition Initial Data Load - The Pep 2: Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice The Condition The Status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. The Status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization recast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization recast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data untained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to be EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. The Valuation Criteria The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was even too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose			pdates the first MMR to indicate it is
The EMR already recognizes the dose as invalid, then this step may be skipped. Pre Condition Initial Data Load - Step 2: Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice Post Condition MMR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. Fest Objectives dose validity is an important aspect of: View Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization corecast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data contained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal the EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Evaluation Criteria Evaluation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was given too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	itial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice n for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. es is an important aspect of: d Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization patient's newly updated immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to use an external forecasting service. eriteria a: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was lay, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	the EMR already recognizes the dose as invalid, then this step may be skipped. 2 Condition tial Data Load - p 2: Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice 3t Condition MR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. 3t Objectives 3se validity is an important aspect of: 3se we Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization reast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data tained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. 3aluation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was ten too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	The EMR already recognizes the dose as invalid, then this step may be skipped. The Condition It is a Data Load - The P2: Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice The Condition IMR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. The Status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. The Week Conciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization recast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data intained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to a EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. The Vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was twen too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	invalid" as it was given too early (as notification)	ed by the registry)
f the EMR already recognizes the dose as invalid, then this step may be skipped. Pre Condition Initial Data Load - Step 2: Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice Post Condition MMR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. Fest Objectives Idose validity is an important aspect of: Fiew Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization corecast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data contained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal the EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Evaluation Criteria Evaluation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was given too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	coad - itial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice In for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In for the first MMR vaccination from practice. In for the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was lay, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	the EMR already recognizes the dose as invalid, then this step may be skipped. 2 Condition tial Data Load - p 2: Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice 3t Condition MR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. 3t Objectives 3se validity is an important aspect of: 3se we Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization reast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data tained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. 3aluation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was ten too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	The EMR already recognizes the dose as invalid, then this step may be skipped. The Condition It is a Data Load - The P2: Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice The Condition IMR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. The Status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. The Week Conciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization recast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data intained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to a EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. The Vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was twen too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	7
Tre Condition Initial Data Load - Itep 2: Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice Tost Condition MMR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. Test Objectives One validity is an important aspect of: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization proceast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data contained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to the EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Total United States of the Condition of the EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Total United States of the Condition of the EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Total United States of the Condition of the EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Total United States of the Condition of the EHR or it can use an external forecasting service.	coad - itial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice In for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. In for the first MMR vaccination for re-evaluate and update the immunization patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization patient's newly updated immunization data public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to use an external forecasting service. In formal in formal in forecast in foreca	e Condition tial Data Load - p 2: Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice st Condition MR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. st Objectives se validity is an important aspect of: w Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization reast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data tained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. aluation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was ten too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	re Condition Initial Data Load - ep 2: Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice Dest Condition IMR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. Est Objectives Dose validity is an important aspect of: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization receast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization registry with immunization data contained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to be EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Evaluation Criteria Faluation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was even too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose		1:1.4 4: 4 1	1 . 1
tep 2: Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice Ost Condition MMR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. Oset Objectives Ose validity is an important aspect of: New Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization proceast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconcillation of immunization tental in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to the EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Ovaluation Criteria Valuation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it wa iven too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	itial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. es is an important aspect of: d Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to n use an external forecasting service. etiteria a: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was lay, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	tial Data Load - p 2: Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice st Condition MR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. st Objectives se validity is an important aspect of: w Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization reast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data tained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. aluation Criteria luation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was ten too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	ep 2: Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice ost Condition IMR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. est Objectives ose validity is an important aspect of: lew Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization recast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data untained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to be EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Internal to exaluation Criteria Paluation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was even too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	the EMR already recognizes the dose as i	ivalid, then this step may be s	skipped.
tep 2: Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice ost Condition MMR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. Fest Objectives ose validity is an important aspect of: liew Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization receast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconcillation of immunization tata contained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to the EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Invaluation Criteria valuation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it wa iven too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	itial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. es is an important aspect of: d Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to n use an external forecasting service. etiteria a: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was lay, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	tial Data Load - p 2: Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice st Condition MR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. st Objectives se validity is an important aspect of: w Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization reast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data tained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. aluation Criteria luation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was ten too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	ep 2: Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice ost Condition IMR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. est Objectives ose validity is an important aspect of: lew Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization recast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data untained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to be EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Internal to exaluation Criteria Paluation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was even too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	ra Canditian tep 2: Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice Oost Condition MMR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. Oest Objectives Oose validity is an important aspect of: Tiew Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization proceast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization tata contained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to the EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Ovaluation Criteria Valuation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it wa iven too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	itial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. es is an important aspect of: d Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to a use an external forecasting service. Fiteria a: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was lay, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	p 2: Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice st Condition MR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. st Objectives se validity is an important aspect of: w Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization reast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data tained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. aluation Criteria the vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was ten too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	ep 2: Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana Mariana Vazquez: Immunizations from practice ost Condition IMR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. est Objectives ose validity is an important aspect of: lew Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization recast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data intained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to be EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Internal to exaluation Criteria Paluation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was even too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose ost Condition MMR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. est Objectives ose validity is an important aspect of: iew Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization recast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data untained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. valuation Criteria valuation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it wa iven too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. es is an important aspect of: d Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to a use an external forecasting service. Fiteria a: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was lay, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	MR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. St Objectives See validity is an important aspect of: We Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization reast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data tained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Saluation Criteria Unation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was the rendered to early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	IMR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. Lest Objectives Dose validity is an important aspect of: Lew Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization recast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data intained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to be EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Levaluation Criteria The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was even too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	iitiai Data Load -
MMR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. est Objectives ose validity is an important aspect of: iew Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization recast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data contained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. valuation Criteria valuation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was iven too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. es is an important aspect of: d Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to n use an external forecasting service. Fiteria a: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was ly, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	MR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. St Objectives See validity is an important aspect of: We Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization reast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data tained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Selectives S	IMR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. est Objectives Ose validity is an important aspect of: Even Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization recast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data intained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to be EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Evaluation Criteria The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was given too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	tep 2: Enter Initial Immunization Data for Juana M	ariana Vazquez: Immunizations from	n practice
IMR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. est Objectives ose validity is an important aspect of: iew Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization recast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data intained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. In aduation Criteria The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was iven too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. es is an important aspect of: d Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to use an external forecasting service. Fiteria a: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was lay, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	MR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. St Objectives See validity is an important aspect of: We Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization reast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data tained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Selectives S	IMR status for the first MMR dose is set to invalid. est Objectives Ose validity is an important aspect of: Even Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization recast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data intained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to be EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Evaluation Criteria The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was given too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose est Objectives Ose validity is an important aspect of: iew Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization recast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data contained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. In aduation Criteria The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was iven too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	is an important aspect of: d Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to n use an external forecasting service. Titeria a: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was ly, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	se validity is an important aspect of: w Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization exast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data tained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Aluation Criteria Criter	est Objectives Ose validity is an important aspect of: New Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization recast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data intained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to be EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. In aduation Criteria The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was given too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose		. 1.1
be validity is an important aspect of: New Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization recast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data untained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Negligible 1. The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was even too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	is an important aspect of: d Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to a use an external forecasting service. Titeria a: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was ly, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	se validity is an important aspect of: w Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization reast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data tained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Aluation Criteria Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was ten too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	be validity is an important aspect of: New Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization recast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data untained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to be EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. New Advantage Criteria The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was given too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	IMR status for the first MIMR dose is set to	invalid.
ew Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunizative recast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data intained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal at EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. In adultion Criteria The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was ven too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	is an important aspect of: d Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to a use an external forecasting service. Titeria a: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was ly, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	se validity is an important aspect of: w Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization reast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data tained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Aluation Criteria Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was ten too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	ew Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization recast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data nationed in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to be EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. In aduation Criteria The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was ven too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	ast Objectives waluation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it walven too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	d Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to n use an external forecasting service. Titeria a: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was lly, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	w Reconciled Immunization Forecast: The EHR or other clinical software system has the ability to re-evaluate and update the immunization recast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data tained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Aluation Criteria The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was ten too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	waluation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was even too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	•
recast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data ontained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. valuation Criteria valuation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was iven too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to a use an external forecasting service. Piteria a: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was lay, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	cast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data tained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to the EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to the EHR or it can use an external forecast can be internal to the EHR or it can use an ex	recast using a patient's newly updated immunization history, where the updated forecast results from the reconciliation of immunization data intained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to be EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. In adultion Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was given too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	sse variety is an important aspect of. entained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. EVALUATION Criteria The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was even too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to use an external forecasting service. Titeria a: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was ly, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	tained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. aluation Criteria The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was the rent of early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	entained in the public health immunization registry with immunization data contained in the EHR. Processing the new forecast can be internal to be EHR or it can use an external forecasting service. Evaluation Criteria Faluation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was given too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose valuation Criteria valuation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it wa iven too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	riteria a: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was ly, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	Aluation Criteria Institution Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was aren too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	valuation Criteria raluation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was even too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose valuation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it wa iven too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	a: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was ly, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	duation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was even too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	raluation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was even too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	ne EHR or it can use an external forecasting service.	Timmumzation data contained in the	ETITA. I Todossing the new forecast can be internal to
valuation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it wa iven too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	a: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was ly, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	duation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was even too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	raluation Criteria: The vendor is able to record that the first MMR vaccination dose is invalid with a reason that it was even too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose
iven too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	ly, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	ren too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose	ven too early, and therefore the dose administered on 11/22/2012 should indicated dose '1', and the dose dministered two weeks prior to the current visit should indicate dose '2'.	two weeks prior to the current visit should indicate dose '2'.	ministered two weeks prior to the current visit should indicate dose '2'.	Iministered two weeks prior to the current visit should indicate dose '2'.			d indicated dose '1', and the dose dministered two weeks prior to the current	visit should indicate dose '2'.	I I

low, the MMR returned from the registry will be imported and the vaccine forecasting steps will be brrect documentation of the dose that will be imported from the registry as dose '1'.